From the CEO

Area residents choose Aiken Regional Medical Centers because they know they'll receive quality healthcare from people who are truly invested in their well-being. They know we are committed to providing the best possible care, and continually investing in lifesaving equipment and advanced technology.

As you browse through the following pages, you'll learn about the advanced services and technology available right here, close to home. Pages 6 and 7 let you in on how to take advantage of free community outreach programs and health screenings. You'll find a complete listing of the active medical staff, as well as an at-a-glance guide to finding a physician by specialty.

My hope is that this brochure will not only inform you about our services, but also give you a sense of the accountability we feel for the community's health and well-being.

And I hope you will get to know Aiken Regional, through our community education seminars, outreach efforts, and our support and social groups. Trust us to keep you and your family healthy. It's our responsibility – and our privilege.

God bless you and your family,

Vance Reynolds, CEO

Physicians are on the medical staff of Aiken Regional Medical Centers, but, with limited exceptions, are independent practitioners who are not employees or agents of Aiken Regional Medical Centers. The hospital shall not be liable for actions or treatments provided by physicians. 152362

Aiken Regional Medical Centers (ARMC) is a 245-bed acute care hospital that serves Aiken and its surrounding counties. The hospital, which opened in 1917, has been at its current location since 1976.

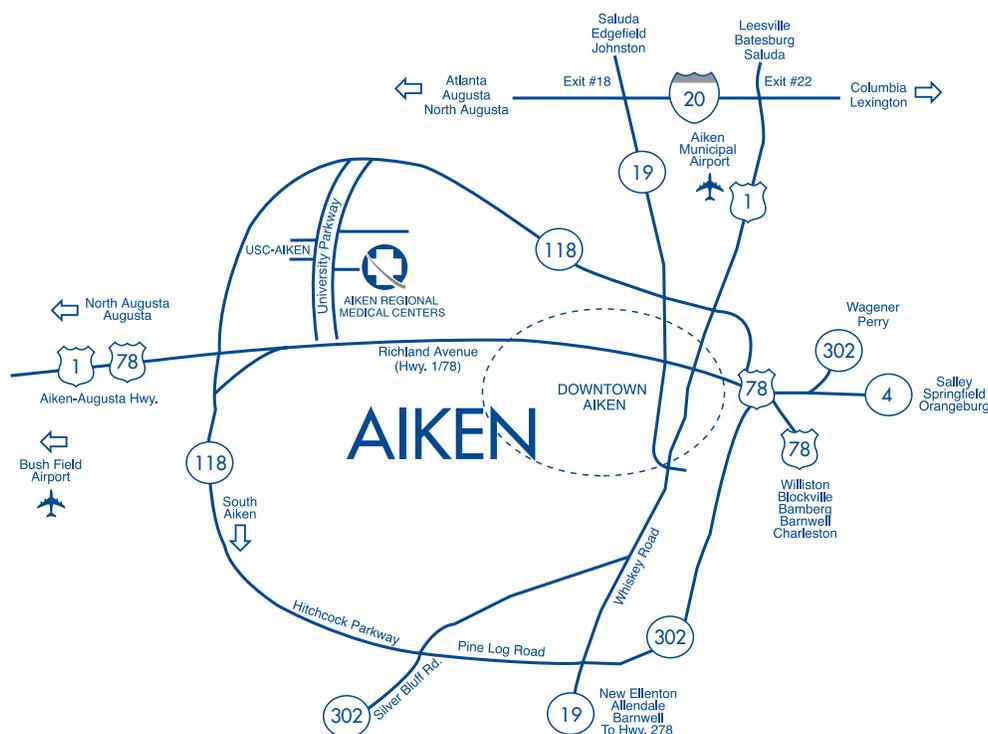

Aiken Regional Medical Centers is owned and operated by a subsidiary of Universal Health Services, Inc. (UHS), a King of Prussia, Pennsylvania-based company that is one of the largest hospital management companies in the nation. More than 145 physicians representing 40-plus specialties are on the medical staff at Aiken Regional Medical Centers. Ninety-two percent of the medical staff are board certified, many in multiple specialties.

QUICK FACTS:

- Our Emergency Department treats over 54,000 people each year.
- The Women’s LifeCare Center delivers over 1,200 babies every year.
- More than 4,800 surgical procedures are performed each year.
- All patient rooms are private (except Aurora Pavilion).
- We are recognized by South Carolina Emergency Management as having the #1 Incident Command System in the state.
- We are the only storm-ready healthcare facility in the CSRA, as named by the National Weather Service.

LEADING THE WAY TO Better Health

The doctors, nurses and employees at Aiken Regional Medical Centers work hard to provide quality patient care. But ARMC's commitment to the community isn't limited to hospital care. Here's a sample of the free and low-cost programs, services and tools available to help you and your family live healthier lives.

COMMUNITY EDUCATION AND OUTREACH

ARMC's comprehensive community education and outreach program has something for everyone in the community, including:

- First aid and CPR training
- American Red Cross babysitting classes
- Health fairs and support groups
- Programs to help teens make wise choices
- Family-life education programs
- Wellness programs for seniors
- Quality of Life, our free health magazine that provides advice on healthy living and keeps you informed on our latest services, procedures and health seminars.
Call 803-641-5928 or visit www.aikenregional.com to sign up for this free publication.

In addition, the hospital holds quarterly seminars at locations throughout Aiken as part of an outreach partnership with five area churches, four planned communities and the City of Aiken. The seminars feature timely health topics and are open to the public.

SENIOR WELLNESS

This free membership program is dedicated especially to the age 50+ population, offering a wide variety of benefits and services including:

Discount Program – Your membership card entitles you to discounts at over 100 participating providers.

Seminars and Activities – Members enjoy participating in a wide variety of planned activities and special educational seminars.

For more information, call 803-641-5926 or 1-800-641-2771 for an enrollment form, or sign up online.

UNIVERSAL MEDICATION FORM: KEEP TRACK OF YOUR MEDICATIONS

Keeping track of your medications can be a challenge, especially if you have certain chronic conditions or take multiple medications.

ARMC, in cooperation with the South Carolina Hospital Association, can provide you with a copy of a Universal Medication Form to help you manage your medications.

Universal Medication Forms are available at the front desk in ARMC's lobby. To receive a form in the mail, please visit www.aikenregional.com and click on Contact. Simply complete the contact form (type "Universal Medication Form" in the subject box) and click on the Submit button.

WORKPLACE WELLNESS

ARMC's Business and Industry Health program helps area employers design workplace wellness programs that can result in fewer sick days, a decline in job-related injuries, increased productivity and better problem-solving abilities. By making Workplace Wellness available to your employees, you can help identify and reduce the risk of some health conditions, including heart attack and stroke. Some insurance companies offer discounts for wellness initiatives.

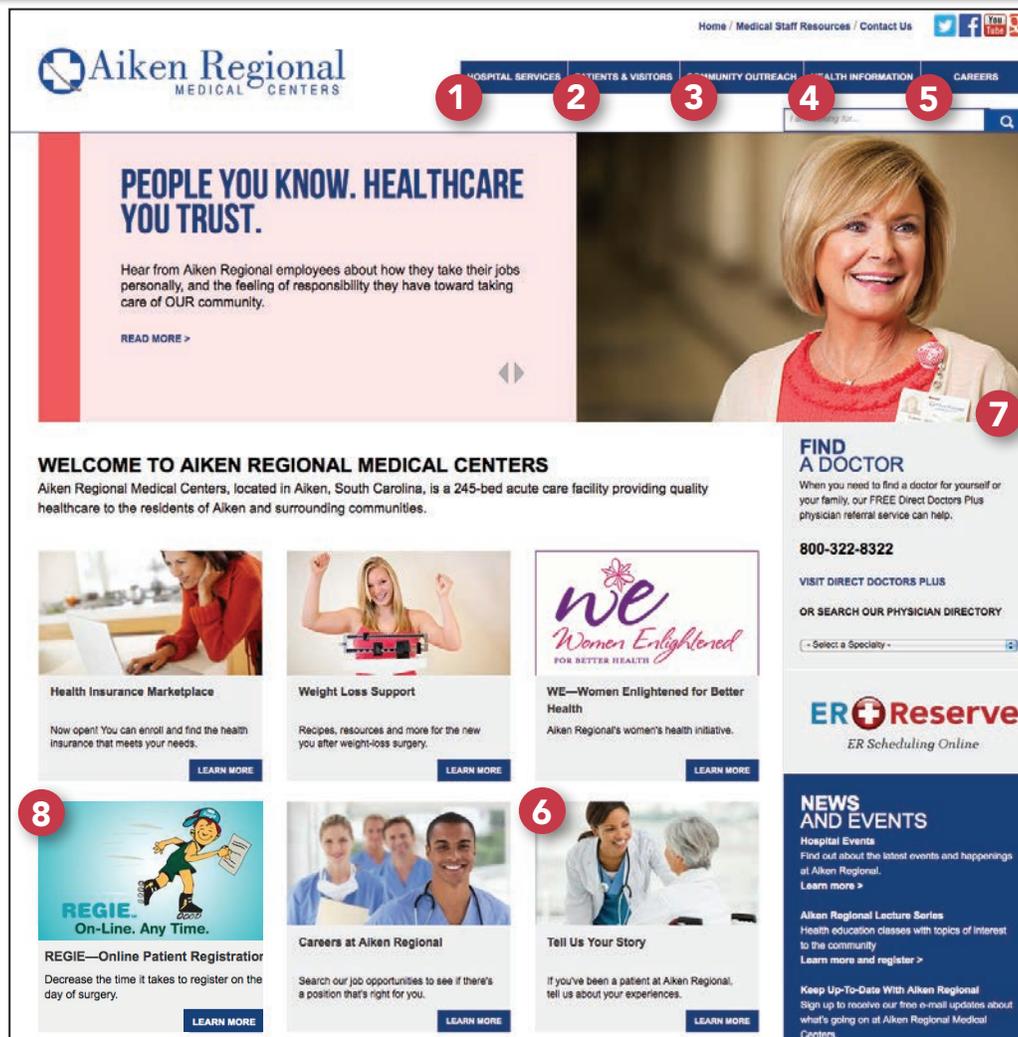

The Business and Industry Health program provides the following services to local businesses:

- Health risk and periodic health assessments
- Preventive, biometric and comprehensive cardiac screenings
- Personal health portfolios
- Educational seminars and health fairs
- Disease management and nutrition guidance
- Physicals
- Drug screenings

DIRECT DOCTORS PLUS® physician referral service

1-800-882-7445

Do you need a physician who can take care of your routine medical needs or a specialist who can diagnose and treat a specific condition?

Talk with a representative who can help you find a doctor or give you a list of doctors so you can choose the physician who best meets your needs. The representative also can make an appointment for you and send you an appointment reminder. Representatives speak English and Spanish, and are available at 1-800-322-8322, Monday – Friday, 8 AM – 8 PM.
